ABOUT ME

I was born in Rinteln Military Hospital, Germany on 15th May 1974, moving to London 3 months later till I was 4 years old, then moved to Norfolk. I began my love of acting at the age of 9 performing in a Scout Gang Show, at the age of 10 I became an extra in the movie Revolution and really got the acting bug. I performed in a number of musicals, plays and pantomimes until 1998 when I realised I was a better rugby player than actor and joined Blackheath Rugby Club playing in the Premiership, after a short stint at Saracens I returned to playing at Blackheath, as well as taking up a coaching and managers position with the England Womens Rugby player development camps and made a few panto appearances until 2008 when a simple knee injury found I actually was born with an extremely rare degenerative spinal disorder that has now left me needing to use a wheelchair for mobility reasons but can stand and walk a few paces unassisted and am extremely comfortable handling reptiles & snakes and other animals.

I am a versatile actor with a wide range of acting styles from comedy to serious and can play either the hero role or the mr nasty, including many different accents. I am a hard worker and extremely dedicated, taking direction extremely well.
