About me	EDIT
----------	------

I am a versatile actress and singer and have worked on a wide range of theatre and film projects and like to choose projects that challenge me.

I have experience of touring both Nationally and Internationally and I have performed outdoors in all weathers and indoors where the weather is more predictable! I am a trained mezzo-soprano singer comfortable in many styles including musical theatre, jazz & blues, folk and pop/ rock. I was trained in all genres of acting and have done many shows from Shakespeare to Children's Television. I am currently performing in Little Red at Theatre Porto and Home in Manchester over the Christmas season. Recent productions have included 'Women of Aktion' with Bradford based Bent Architect, the sell out run of 'Waking Beauty' at The Ovalhouse a retelling of the sleeping beauty tale with an LGBT twist and the critically acclaimed 'Women of Twilight' playing 'Olga' one of the residents of a home for unmarried mothers at The Pleasance. I am based in South East London but also have a base in Leeds and am willing to travel for work as I am a car owner.

Additional skills:

Stilt-walking, physical theatre, mask work - training with Vamos Theatre, Mo-Cap, improvisation, horse riding and puppeteering both animatronic and hand manipulated. Stage combat training with current standard certificate and Firearms training both civilian and law enforcement.
